'Crooked Hillary and Corrupt Kaine': Trump slams Clinton's VP pick and insists the pair have BOTH contributed to America's 'rigged system'

- Republican nominee told his supporters the pair are both corrupt
- Said Kaine is 'ethically challenged' and wouldn't change anything
- He also referred to the Democratic ticket as the 'ultimately insiders'
- Highlighted Virginia senator taking 'thousands in freebies' in government

Donald Trump has slammed Hillary Clinton's selection of Tim Kaine has his vice president - insisting voters would be choosing a corrupt pair for the White House. The Republican nominee rebranded the Democratic ticket as 'Crooked Hillary and Corrupt Kaine' and insisted it was more evidence that Obama was not fit for third term. Just 24 hours after his acceptance speech at the GOP convention, he added that the pair want us to believe in a 'rigged system that enriches them at your expense'.

Donald Trump: George W. Bush "didn't have the IQ" to be president, and "the last thing we need" is Jeb in the White House

He told O'Reilly his ISIS solution entails "bombing the hell out of it" and "letting our great oil companies go in"

On Tuesday's edition of "The O'Reilly Factor," host Bill O'Reilly with the completely serious, ulterior motiveless Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump.

During the course of the interview, Trump went out of his way to prove his seriousness by opining that he would defeat ISIS by "hitting them so hard your head would spin" and claimed he sent O'Reilly "that document" in 2004 in which he allegedly predicted that if the United States went into Iraq – which it actually did in 2003, but no matter – the region would be destabilized such that Iran would wind up in control of it.
